

Call your insurance company & ask these questions.

- 1.) What are my acupuncture benefits?
- 2.) How many visits per year are covered?
- 3.) When does the policy year begin and end?
- 4.) What is my deductible that I have to pay before insurance covers my acupuncture visits?
- 5.) What is my copay or co-insurance?
- 6.) What conditions does my insurance cover? (Most plans only cover the treatment of Low back pain, neck pain, headaches, migraines, osteoarthritis of the knees or hips, nausea during pregnancy are commonly covered. Find out what your insurance covers so that you know if your reason for needing treatment is on the covered list).
- 7.) Do I need a referral from my doctor for the specific condition that is covered? (If so, call your doctor, give them our NPI#:1285152975, & ask for an acupuncture referral for the condition.)
- 8.) May I have a reference number for the phone call? (it is on a recorded line and can be listened to in the future if needed)

We ask that you be sure you understand your insurance benefits. You'll want to let us know the details of your plan. Still have questions? Email frontdesk@meadedanielle.com
